Anglesea. Blazing Saddles! A weekend ride to Anglesea on 24,25 and 26th April (Anzac weekend). Come and join us in a ride down to Sorrento, across the bay via ferry to Queenscliff, then on to Anglesea. Here we will enjoy the pre organised Blazing Saddles horse ride. For those of you who have, like me, not ever been on a horse, I am informed that our mighty steeds are relaxed and awaiting your command. The ride will consist of bush and beach where we will explore new lands, chart new coasts and tame wild beasts.....or something very similar. The ride will be followed by a well earned feast. Costs to be provided shortly.(riders to arrange own accommodation, but options will be provided shortly,). For those of the tamer derriere variety, there will be arrangements made for the local Golf club where eagles will sore, pars will be reduced and, well, you get my drift. Additionally there will be a ride organised for the Anglesea area where we will conqueror the might Alps of the Ottoway Ranges. Soaring and gliding and, ok, ok, Im getting a little carried away here. I need an expression of interest in order to gage accommodation requirements. I have several accommodation options, but am after a guide to THOSE WHO DARE RIDE the BLAZING SADDLES OF GLORY.....
