

Sat / Sun 27-28th February 2010

Bandiana Army Museum. A weekend ride to the Army Museum at Bandiana (approx 70kms south east of Albury). Includes Tanks, military vehicles, machine guns etc. Includes a replica of Changi Chapel. The collection covers The Australian Army's involvement from 1863 through to the present day and works in collaboration with the Australian War Memorial in Canberra. Departing Shell Station at Lilydale at 7am on Sat 27th Feb, for arrival at Museum approx 12pm (3hrs 45m approx trip, with some rest stops). Staying overnight in Bandiana area. (Riders to arrange own accommodation, but options will be provided shortly,). Museum closes at 5pm. Departing Bandiana for ride back to Lilydale approx 10:30am, back by 2:30-3pm. Ride leader, Captain Slow (Richard Hallford) 0417 461 206, 9733 0550